

Terms and Conditions

I agree that Caradz will use my car for placing of advertising on the front doors and the rear of the car and or the bumper. All adverts will be placed in accordance with NZTA regulations. i.e not covering any windows or mirrors.

The term that I agree Caradz can make use of my car for advertising purposes is 1 year from the date that this form is signed. I understand that if both parties agree this term may roll over for another year. It will be assumed that I agree to another years use of my car if I have not informed Caradz that I wish to cancel our agreement 1 month before the end of the year. I understand that Caradz will contact me either by Email or phone to confirm a continuation of this agreement up to 1 month before the end of the agreement.

I agree to keep all advertising on my car clean and free of dirt.

Any damage to the car or advertising will be reported to Caradz immediately. Caradz will be allowed access to my car to repair any damaged advertising.

Sale of the car. I agree not to sell my car within the year stated. If the car is sold, exchanged or repossessed I will reimburse Caradz with 50% of the fee that I receive from them at the time of signing this agreement unless a continuation of the current agreement is entered into for the new car.

I agree to bring my car to the nearest Caradz branch every 4 months to have the advertising inspected. If it is considered that the advertising needs to be repaired in any way I agree to allow Caradz to carry out any work necessary

I agree that Caradz can terminate this agreement and remove any advertising at any time.

Change of advertising. Although most advertising will be in place for 1 year I agree to allow Caradz to change the advertising on my car 3 times per year.

Advert content: I agree that Caradz can use my car for any type of advertising content. I understand that Caradz will not use any content that contravenes the standards set out by the Advertising Standards Committee. I reserve the right to refuse any political or religious advertising unless prior agreement has been made.

I understand that when Caradz need to remove any advertising at the end of the years contract that I will bring my car to the nearest Caradz branch for advertising removal. Caradz will do their best to leave my car and paintwork in the same condition as it was when the agreement was entered into. I understand that Caradz accept no responsibility for any paintwork damage that may take place because of advertising. I agree to allow Caradz to take photos of the advertising areas on my car before and after adverting has been placed and removed.

I understand that my car number plate will be forwarded to any advertisers and that my car can be used for any Caradz promotional work including web site promotions.
